LAYOUT STAFF

The 1951 Ayantee Staff has tried to give you an Annual that you can show with pride; one that will adequately back up your future boasts of the activities, achievements, and events that took place while you were here.

May it also serve to remind you of the friendships, both transient and lasting, you made here; the warmth and good fellowship you knew here; and the living and loving, walking, talking, and squawking you did here.

It is our hope that the education, experience, and all other worthwhile inevitable results of your being here will be of incalculable value to you in your search for the finer things of life.

May each page help to remind you that you are leaving here to live in accordance with the highest ideals, ambitions, and desires, and to live according to the dictates of good citizenship.

Take one Aggie, multiply him by three thousand, add four years of college education, fun, activities and culture. Strain off the activities, mix with printers ink, add tons of paper and you have your student newspaper.

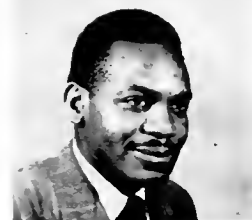

Take another Aggie, mix him with desks, typewriters, paper, flash bulbs, indion ink, pictures, advertisements and, oh yes, erasers, add a few laughs, midnight oil, hours of toil, moods and a grin from ear to ear and you'll have James "Bugs" Beckett, Editor-in-Chief. His right hand man, the capable E. Henry Girven, Associate Editor and Business Manager, heads the list of ardent workers. He is followed by Arthur Word, Ollie Norman, Beulah Mitchell, Lam Perry, Willie Braswell, Cora Page, Ann Steele, Ophelia Downing, Lannie MacArthur, Sylvia Coleman, Henry Knight, Hanford Stafford, James Bridgett, Richard Moore, Marvin Sanders, John Royster, Howard Ward, Richard Nowlin, Samson Buie, Samuel Evans, Josue Amaro, and many others. Our dependable advisors Dean War-moth T. Gibbs, Wendell M. Bryant and Mr. A. B. Lewis must be mentioned. Their suggestions and guidance help to bring you the news you made at A. and T. and elsewhere.

Foreword

"What is different we shall do today; what is impossible we shall do tomorrow."

In this world of confusion, fear and prejudice these are "Words to Live By." General Dwight D. Eisenhower spoke and wrote them during one of the Allied Army's Campaigns. With his genius for organization, he had the power to accomplish difficult tasks, to work, and he succeeded mightily. Again he has been called upon to use his powers to help the nations of the world unite to end all wars and work together toward everlasting peace.

"What is different we shall do today; what is impossible we shall do tomorrow." Our staff, inspired by these timely words, has chosen his quotation as the theme for this annual.

We are happy, therefore, to have our President, Dr. F. D. Bluford, encourage our efforts to bring you this publication. We are deeply grateful to our advisors, Messrs. Wendell M. Bryant and George E. Williams, for helping us compile our cherished memories at A. and T., for their tireless and timely help was not only an inspiration, but a lasting memory of the type of service our administrators, faculty, and soon, we ourselves will render each day.

Each face, organization, educational or social activity has surely helped us to do the difficult today, and with its expansion, A. and T. College and its administrators, faculty and students will be in a better position to "Do the impossible tomorrow."—The Editor.

DR. F. D. BLUFORD

MISS VIRGINIA DURHAM
Secretary to the President

To the President.....

To be driven to work is one thing but to be inspired to work is another. Guided by this adage The Agricultural and Technical College of North Carolina, under the capable leadership of Dr. Ferdinand D. Bluford as its president is successfully meeting the needs of the changing educational process throughout the nation.

The college is enjoying its most extensive building program and better educational facilities under the able guidance of President Bluford.

We are aware that our President's efforts with the full support of his administration, are helping us develop our potentialities, teaching us to serve in our best capacities and preparing us to meet, and deal successfully with all problems that will come to us in our future lives.

TO THE SENIORS

Graduating Seniors of the Agricultural and Technical College, I congratulate you and wish you and those who remain here at A. and T. the best of luck in all of your undertakings.

I wish to compliment the entire Ayantee Staff for their untiring work in the production of this splendid year book. Special credit must be given to Mr. Wendell Bryant, Mr. George Williams, Mr. James Beckett, and Mr. Marvin Sanders.

We, as graduating seniors, should be deeply grateful for the guidance of our president and faculty members in our preparing ourselves to meet the problems that face the world in its changing and conflicting crises.

We believe that knowledge is the cornerstone of the temple of aspiration, and we know that what we have received from our teachers and books does not belong to us but it is only committed to us in trust. Therefore, it is our duty to administer it only for the good of mankind, its beneficiary, to the end that the world may become a kindlier, a happier, a better place in which to live.

—Joseph Lyles Jr.

Mr. L. A. Wise
Senior Advisor

Campus Big-Wigs

For the first time in our lives, perhaps we now realize the full meaning of leaving college. Soon we will be faced with problems and tasks of a tense and confused world, a world where each must stand his own ground and accomplish his own ideals.

The more you put into something the more you derive from it. The above seniors have held prominent positions and have had experiences that will be assets to them in years to come. These are but a few who have taken advantage of the many opportunities that our institution presents for each student. They have begun to realize the aims of a college education.

These, along with the other members of the graduating class, have the following assets that will help us to face the tasks and obstacles of the future. First, the intellectual vigor, second, the broad knowledge of human nature, and third, the moral, spiritual culture that will lead the world eventually to a everlasting peace.

Campus Organizations

No college campus would be complete without its organizations. They are as essential to the well being of the student as good meals, physical exercise, excellent educational facilities, and good instructors. They help to develop the student's qualities of leadership and co-operation. They provide him with friends, entertainment, culture, and social education as a means for constructively employing his leisure time. They act as safety valves of pent-up emotions, that otherwise might be detrimental to the student's mental and physical health.

M. Green, Lottie Massenburg, Vivian Pasco.

The Aurora Pledge Club of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority was organized on this campus for the first time in the history of the school, October 21, 1950 by Mrs. Annie W. Neville, Regional Director of the North Eastern Syntakes, of Rocky Mount, N. C.

Eleven women students form the pledge club, Barbara Jackson, Pres.; Frances Andrews, Vice-Pres.; Marvalene Tillman, Sect'y.; Pauline Robinson, Asst. Sec.; Mildred Jackson, Treas.; Rosa Gay, Reporter; Beulah Mitchell, Betty Thames, Lottie Massenburg, Virvian Pasco and Avery Mae Green.

The chartered eleven worked arduously to enlarge the group and give it prestige on the campus.

Since October 21, 1950 the pledge club has increased to 23 by the addition of Norma Qualls, Margaret Jackson, Mildred Ross, Laumar Taylor, Ruby Williamson, Rosetta Bonds, Dorothy Odom, Ethel Williams, Gwendolyn Judge, Arimenta Pugh, Ella Arrington and Mary Booth.

Among Our Souvenirs

The members of the graduating class hold many fond memories because of the effort put forth by special groups and societies to bring to the campus the very best in cultural entertainment.

The Richard B. Harrison Players have done excellent work under the capable direction of Prof. Roy H. Brown and Mr. Sylvester Clark. The four major productions presented during our stay were "Wuthering Heights," "Deep Are the Roots," "The Little Foxes" and "Jane Eyre."

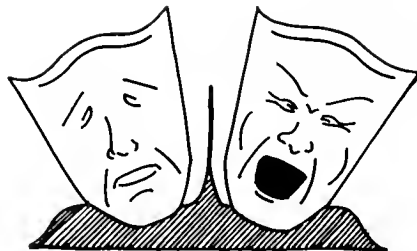

The Modern Dance Group, directed by Mrs. Sherma Hough Lowe, presented several dance recitals. Perhaps the most outstanding were "Dance Television" and "Dance Goes to the Carnival."

The music rendered by our Choral Society which was directed by Prof. C. A. Braithwaite and Prof. Howard T. Pearsall shall long be remembered. The annual Christmas Concerts greatly impressed us.

Our hearts swell with pride when we think of our musical aggregations on the campus. The Eighty piece concert Band and the one hundred and five piece Marching Band have brought us state and national recognition under the direction of Prof. Walter F. Carlson. Our own Rhythm Vets gave us plenty of good dance music to make for many pleasant evenings.

We couldn't end this acknowledgement of the cultural influences in our lives at A. and T. without paying tribute to the Art Department. Prof. H. Clinton Taylor and his co-workers, Mr. George Williams and Miss Rosemary Lewis, have brought us annual art contests and exhibitions, including the yearly traveling exhibitions of reproductions of the works of the Old masters.

All these, and other influences, have done much to insure that we leave here cultured as well as educated.

NINA JOHNSON

Miss A. & T.

Selected by popular vote because she possesses the finest qualities of womanhood, "Her Majesty," Miss Nina Johnson, is honored, respected, and loved by all of Aggiedom. It is beyond our feeble power to adequately express the high esteem in which we hold her, the pride we have in her, and the joy we know in serving her. She so perfectly represents our most glorious Alma Mater.

Our gracious queen is a chemistry major and hails from Beaufort, N. C. She is a member of the Delta Sigma Theta sorority and was twice listed in "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities." Long Live The Queen!!!

Homecoming Festival

The greatest homecoming in the history of A. and T. College started with a boom on Thursday, October 25th, and lasted for three wonderful days. Signs and posters were put up, bonfires were built, queens were crowned, floats were made, old friends met, dances were held, and yarns were spun.

The signs and posters warned the bears of Morgan State that the championship minded Aggies would literally tear them apart. The "Bears," however not easily frightened gave a pretty good account of themselves before approximately 25,000 spectators in holding the Aggies to a scoreless tie. The Aggies made their warning look good by winning the conference diadem although a victory over the Bears was denied.

A. and T. got enough support from the student body, Alumni, and friends to make the week end the most gala one ever seen at this institution. There were numerous affairs on the campus such as the Alumni dance, the Alumni barbecue supper and the portraying of the "Aggie Spirit."

Among our many visitors were the heavyweight champion Ezzard Charles and Dr. Martin Jenkins, President of Morgan State College.

1950 C.I.A.A. FOOTBALL CHAMPS

The students, alumni, friends, and well-wishers of the college can be justly proud of the way our athletic teams performed during the past year. They have performed in the most sportsmanlike ways and have bounced to prove beyond a shadow of doubt that they can fall and rise again.

Coach Bill Bell and his cohorts must be complimented for the excellent work they have done in lifting our athletic powers from the position of the footstool to the most envied position in the conference. It has been a long hard task but even the most cynical must admit that athletically speaking A. and T. had arrived.

The football team proved itself by scooping the CIAA championship. The baseball team won the same distinction. The basketball team showed signs of coming into its own by winning a CIAA tournament berth for the first time. The track and boxing teams have enjoyed reasonable success for quite a few years.

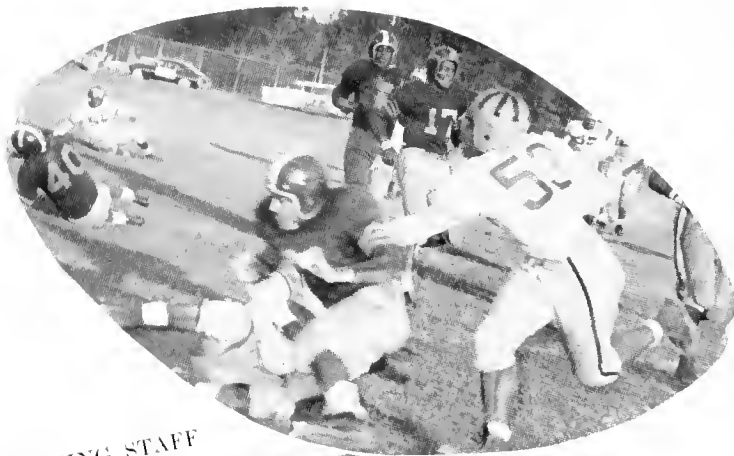

Two athletic contests during the past year took on special significance for loyal Aggie rooters. A record Homecoming Day crowd of 25,000 saw the Aggies battle the highly regarded Morgan Bears to a scoreless tie. A fitting climax to a glorious year in sports came however on Thanksgiving Day when the Aggies took the measure of the high flying Eagles of N. C. College by the score of 25-13 to claim the CIAA football championship for the first time in twenty-seven years.
